

The Next International Workshop
and Conference of Network Science

NetSci' 08

June 23 - 27
2008

At the
Norwich BioSciences
Conference Centre
Norwich Research Park, UK

<http://www.ifr.ac.uk/netsci08>

Network science
— Connecting disciplines

Workshop: 23-24 June

Introducing tools from a variety of research areas for the study of Complex Networks.

Conference: 25-27 June

Focus on Network Theory and its applications to

- Health and Society
- Biological and Environmental Sciences
- Communication and Management
- Economy, Finance and Business

Scientific organisers

József Baranyi (Norwich, UK)
Guido Caldarelli (Rome, Italy)
Zoltán Toroczkai (Notre Dame, USA)
Albert-László Barabási (Northeastern, USA)

Invited speakers (confirmed)

Mark Newman (Michigan State, USA)
Neil Ferguson (Imperial, London, UK)
Rosario Mantegna (Palermo, Italy)
Jukka-Pekka Onnela (Oxford, UK)
Stefan Bornholdt (Bremen, Germany)
Vittoria Colizza (Torino, Italy)
Zoltán Oltvai (Pittsburgh, USA)
Tim Lenton (Norwich, UK)
Stefan Schuster (Jena, Germany)
Romualdo Pastor-Satorras
(Barcelona, Spain)

Patron

David White (Norwich UK)

Keynote speakers (confirmed)

Robert May (Oxford, UK)
Nicholas Christakis (Harvard, USA)
Brian Uzzi (Northwestern, USA)

Workshop presenters (confirmed)

Guido Caldarelli (Rome, Italy)
Réka Albert (Penn State, USA)
Sanjeev Goyal (Cambridge, UK)
Noshir Contractor (Illinois, USA)

nature

Microsoft
Research

Registration until 31 May
£150 (whole week); £75 (one day)